Objectives and investment policy

Investment Objective:

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide long-term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy:

The Fund intends to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily in U.S. publicly traded equity securities. The Fund also may invest a portion of its assets in equity securities, including American Depositary Receipts, of non-U.S. issuers located primarily in the various developed countries of Europe and Asia. The Fund will typically hold 40 to 60 securities.

The Fund may also, pending reinvestment, or if this is considered appropriate to the investment objective, invest on a short term basis in cash, cash equivalents and money market instruments (including, but not limited to, cash deposits, commercial paper and certificates of deposit) listed or traded on U.S. markets with a rating of AAA.

The Fund may (but is not obliged to) enter into forward currency contracts for currency hedging purposes.

The Fund is actively managed meaning that the Fund is run on an entirely discretionary basis.

You can buy, sell and exchange shares on each business day on which banks in Dublin and the United States are generally open for business. You must submit your application to the Fund's Administrator before 4.30 p.m. (Irish time) on the relevant business day.

Your shares do not pay you income. Income is accrued within the Fund and is reflected in the value of shares. A distributing share class is also available. Further information can be found in the Fund's supplement.

Risk and reward profile

The indicator above illustrates the position of this Fund on a standard risk/reward category scale.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean investment is “risk free”.

This indicator is not a measure of the risk that you may lose the amount you have invested.

The risk rating is partially based on the historical volatility of the Fund (from 20 December 2013 onwards) and partially based on the historical volatility of the Iridian U.S. Equity Composite (from 1 January 2012 to 20 December 2013), a composite of portfolios managed similar to the portfolio of the Fund, which has been managed by the investment professionals of the Investment Manager. The historical volatility of this portfolio gives it a risk level of 6. Risk level 6 is an average risk level for equity funds focusing on the U.S. region.

The indicator opposite does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

The Fund's share price is dependent on stock market conditions and may fall in response to a fall in the market. As the value of your investment may fall, you may get back less than what you originally invested.

Changes in economic, tax or foreign investment policies, or other political, governmental or economic actions may adversely affect the value of securities in the Fund.

Frequent trading of the Fund's securities may result in increased transactions costs and expenses which may reduce the value of the Fund's securities.

The Fund may invest in small-capitalisation and medium-capitalisation companies which may carry additional risks such as reduced liquidity and increased volatility.

For more information on risks, please see the section entitled “Risk Factors” in the prospectus of the Company.
